

Title: INFORMATION CONCERNING N. N. ZHUKOV-VEREZHNIKOV (USSR)

Source: As Indicated

SECRET

SECRET

INFORMATION CONCERNING N. N. ZHUKOV-VEREZHNIKOV

1. The following is a chronological listing of appointments and positions which have been held by Professor Nikolay Nikolayevich Zhukov-Verezhnikov:

28 October 1946 -- Elected Corresponding Member, Department of Hygiene, Microbiology, and Epidemiology, Academy of Medical Sciences of the USSR.

27 December 1948 -- Elected Active Member, Academy of Medical Sciences of the USSR.

27 December 1948 -- Elected Director of the Institute of Experimental Biology, Department of Medical Biological Sciences, Academy of Medical Sciences of the USSR.

3 November 1950 -- Elected Member of Presidium, Academy of Medical Sciences of the USSR.

July 1948 - June 1950 -- Listed as associate editor of the periodical, Vestnik Akademii Meditsinskikh Nauk SSSR.

2. Zhukov-Verezhnikov is co-author with L. A. Kalinichenko of an article entitled, "Teachings of Michurin-Lysenko and Certain Contemporary Medico-Biological Problems." At a session of the Department of Hygiene, Microbiology, and Epidemiology, Academy of Medical Sciences USSR, held on 16 Mar 1950, and devoted to a discussion of G. M. Boshyan's book, Nature of Viruses and Microbes, mention was made of Zhukov-Verezhnikov's work which dealt with the problem of filtrable forms of bacteria. In a report on the Twelfth All-Union Congress of Hygienists, Epidemiologists, Microbiologists, and Infectionists, which was held in Moscow in October 1947, it is indicated that Zhukov-Verezhnikov was among the men who submitted papers on problems of immunity and prophylactic inoculation. In April 1949 he was an official opponent in the defense of a dissertation for the degree of Doctor of Medical Sciences by S. R. Gildinin; subject of this dissertation was: Diphtheria in Uzbekistan (Epidemiology and Immunology).

-1-

SECRET

SECRET

3. In March 1950, Zhukov-Verezchnikov received the Stalin Prize Second Class for developing a method for the treatment and prophylaxis of infectious diseases. (A photograph of subject person can be obtained).
4. Additional information on Zhukov-Verezchnikov can be found in OO-W-3981 and OO-W-715.

SECRET

SECRET

Bibliography

1. Vestnik Akademii Meditsinskikh Nauk, SSSR, No. 4, 1948.
2. Ibid, Nos. 1, 2, and 3, 1950.
3. Sovetskoye Zdravookhraneniye, No. 1, 1948.
4. Meditsinskiy Rabotnik, No. 13, 30 Mar. 1949.

SECRET

-3-